UNITED STATES' SUPPLEMENTAL PROPOSED JURY INSTRUCTIONS

COMES NOW the United States of America, by and through Louis V. Franklin, Sr., Acting United States Attorney for the Middle District of Alabama, and Andrew C. Lourie, Acting Chief of the Public Integrity Section of the Criminal Division of the United States Department of Justice, at the close of all the evidence, and respectfully requests that the following Jury Instructions be given to the jury in the above-styled case in addition to the United States' Proposed Jury Instructions filed before trial.

It is proper for an attorney to interview any witness in preparation for trial.

Seventh Circuit Pattern Jury Instructions, § 1.07.

It is not a defense to any crime charged in the indictment that the offer, promise, demand, or receipt of anything of value was made to or by a public official to influence an official act that is actually lawful, desirable, or even beneficial to the public.

Kevin F. O'Malley, Jay E. Grenig & William C. Lee, Federal Jury Practice and Instructions § 27.11 (5th ed. 2000).

It is illegal under the honest services statute for a public official to sell his own official acts, and it is illegal to sell his influence over the official acts of others as well.

United States v. Lopez-Lukis, 102 F.3d 1164, 1168, 1171 (11th Cir. 1997)("if it is illegal for a public official to sell her own vote, it must be illegal for her to sell her vote and her influence over other's [sic] votes as well." ... "Any hard and fast rule that the government cannot use a public official's conduct that is not in an official capacity as evidence of a scheme to defraud the public of an official's honest services would impermissibly narrow the scope of section 1346 and would belie a clear congressional intent to construe the mail fraud statute broadly." (quotation marks omitted)).

It is not a defense to any of the crimes charged in the indictment that a public official did not have the authority, power, or ability to perform the act for which a thing of value was given, offered, demanded, or sought.

2 Kevin F. O'Malley, Jay E. Grenig & William C. Lee, Federal Jury Practice and Instructions § 27.12 (5th ed. 2000). See also United States v. Parker, 133 F.3d 322, 325-26 (5th Cir. 1998) ("Official acts that violate an official's official duty are also not limited to those within the official's specific authority.").

Respectfully submitted this the 13th day of June, 2006
